

Emergence Festival 2025

OVERVIEW

Nothing emerges from the ether fully formed. Everything that is has been shaped by that which came before it. Every story told can be understood in a new way as it is heard with new ears and spoken by new voices. Your ears. Your voices.

The Napa Valley College Emergence Festival of New Works is a celebration of voices built each year around a central theme. This year, we ask NVC Students, Staff and Faculty to share their original works on the theme of “Metamorphosis”.

Art is subjective and often is based on personal experiences, opinions, beliefs, and feelings rather than on agreed and established facts. The Emergence Festival of New Works allows for your artistic work to be shared. Your work/s might include: paintings, drawings, sculpture, photography, film, play/monologue, spoken word, written poetry, song, or music composition.

The faculty of the NVC Performing Arts and Visual Arts Departments will serve as curators for this event. Performing Artists whose works are chosen for this year's Festival will be invited to develop their pieces in workshop with faculty in preparation for the live event taking place on February 7, 8, & 9 2025.

TO APPLY

- To apply you must be Napa Valley College students, alumni, staff or faculty members. The work of art must incorporate Metamorphosis as a major theme. Performance and Film work must be under seven minutes in length. Visual Arts work must be loaned to the NVC Visual and Performing Arts Departments from two weeks prior to the show opening through the final performance.
- Applicants may perform sections of their works to fulfill the time limit requirement.
